

CONSENT FORM FOR INSTRUCTORS

The Corpus of English for Academic and Professional Purposes (CEAPP) is a digital repository of video-based data from university-level ESL, STEM instructional contexts, and various types of K-12 settings.

Conditions for data use

To ensure fair, ethical use of the data and sustainable development of CEAPP, individuals wishing to use the data for research and pedagogical purposes must comply with the following conditions:

1. Read and follow the TalkBank Code of Ethics (<https://talkbank.org/share/ethics.html>) which deals with issues of respect for participants and contributors and maintenance of confidentiality;
2. Cite and acknowledge CEAPP in all educational and research products (e.g., teaching materials, conference presentations, manuscripts). APA citation should appear as: Corpus of English for Academic and Professional Purposes. (2014). Corpus of videos and accompanying transcripts from educational contexts. Unpublished raw data;
3. Share educational products (e.g., syllabi and teaching materials) with CEAPP;
4. Accept responsibility for ensuring that student users of the database comply with these conditions.

I agree to the conditions for data use

_____	_____	_____
Name (print)	Signature	Date (mm/dd/yyyy)
_____	_____
Affiliation	Email address

Please contact the CEAPP representative at <ceapp@psu.edu>, if you have any questions.